Canadian Artist Serge Brunoni to appear at Chase Art Gallery

Artist Serge Brunoni to Appear at Chase Art Gallery Wednesday, Nov. 14

One of Canada's most acclaimed artists, Serge Brunoni, will be appearing at Chase Art Gallery on Nov. 14. He will be at the gallery between 6:30 and 8:30 p.m. for an exclusive Q&A period. You won't want to miss this evening as Serge will be available to answer your questions and share stories from his illustrious career.

Find out what his amazing work, from his time spent in Africa to painting for former Prime Minister Jean Chretien.

For over 40 years Brunoni has been capturing the many faces of Montreal, Quebec, and the rough rural northern landscape that we call home. His painting style is bold, brash and fearless, and each painting tells us a story.

After seeing his work it is easy to understand why this artist has made such an impact among art enthusiasts, critics and collectors. Over 30 new paintings will be unveiled at this event, discover for yourself what makes him such an important artist at Chase art gallery on Nov. 14. Chase art Gallery is located at 450 Beaconsfield Blvd. in Beaconsfield. www.chaseartgallery.com
